THE DRAGUATE

Antonio
"Adrienne LaCielo"
Polanco Lee

Adrienne LaCielo is the stage name for entertainer, entrepreneur, activist, and graduate Antonio Polanco Lee. Antonio graduated from Los Angeles Harbor College with a 3.9 GPA and 3 degrees as follows: AA-T in Music, Fine Arts & Humanities, and Social and Behavioral Sciences. This scholar and entertainer is set to transfer to UC Irvine to continue his studies and work in the entertainment industry. After living in Los Angeles for two years and training with world-renowned choreographers like Richard "Richy" Jackson and Rosero McCoy, Antonio is ready to move back to continue what he started. As a motivated performer, Antonio and Adrienne continued to work and audition through the pandemic.

You can see Adrienne in Keke Palmer's music video "Bottoms Up 2.0," and as a guest star in Netflix's "The Upshaws".

You can also see Antonio performing original hits like "707" out of drag. Most recently, he performed alongside music group The Nuckleheads at The Choreographer's Carnival in Hollywood.
